SEVERAL HURT IN TRAFFIC MISHAPS

While attempting to board a car of the Washington Railway and Electric Company at Nichols avenue and Pleasant street southeast, Julius Moeller, thirty-four years old, an auto-patrol chauffeur of Eleventh precinct, fell, incurring painful injuries.

Samuel Nare, colored, sixteen years old, 2256 Cleveland avenue northwest, suffered injuries to his knees when an auto truck of the G. G. Cornwell Company, on which he was riding, was struck by a car of the Washington Railway and Electric Company at Twenty-second and P streets northwest.

An automobile owned by John H. Doran, of Fort Washington, Md., was damaged when it collided with an auto-delivery truck of the Manhattan Steam Laundry at Fourth street and Pennsylvania avenue southeast. Occupants of the two machines escaped injury.

The automobile of Dr. Ralph Cohen, 438 M street northwest, was slightly damaged when it was struck by a car of the Washington Railway and Electric Company at Delaware avenue and C street northwest.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—Lieut. David Putnam, of Boston, America's premier flying ace, went to his death as he won his fifteenth aerial battle, dispatches from the front here today stated.

Putnam fell September 12, at Limey, shot down by a German aviator, who fell simultaneously, making Putnam's fifteenth victim.

D. C. OFFICER HELD PRISONER AT BADEN

CAPT. H. F. KANE,
Of Washington, Held Prisoner at Rastatt, Baden.

The location of the German prison camp in which Capt. Howard F. Kane, of the medical corps, U. S. A., is being held a prisoner was reported to the young man's housekeeper, Mrs. A. M. Abbott, of 3900 Eighth street northwest.

The report states that he is at the central prison camp for American prisoners of war at Rastatt, Baden, where he is being held with 1,000 other American soldiers.

Captain Kane was taken prisoner in June while working in a British sector aiding the wounded English soldiers. Nothing more was heard about him until yesterday when word came giving the name of the camp where he is detained by the Germans.

Previous to his entrance into the medical corps of the army, Captain Kane was a Washington physician. For more than three years he had his offices at 1628 I street northwest. He was graduated from George Washington University in 1912. He also received an A. B. degree at Bowdoin College, and had attended the Jefferson Medical School.

EXPECT EARLY TO REMAIN AT TRYON

Washington health officials today believe that John R. Early, famous leper, will remain permanently at Tryon, N. C., with his family.

Advices from the North Carolina town are to the effect that Early is determined not to return to Washington, and that his family sympathize with him in his determination.

MUST ASK FOR RETURN.

According to Dr. William C. Fowler, health officer of the District, Early could be returned to this city only on his specific request. Even then, permission would have to be obtained from the surgeon general's office for a waiver of Federal quarantine laws forbidding interstate travel by persons afflicted with communicable diseases, and a permit must be issued by the District Health Department allowing Early to enter this city, Dr. Fowler stated.

In the event Early voluntarily returned to this city he would be cared for in the same manner as during the past ten years. District officials will make no move toward his return here. Meantime authorities at Tryon, N. C., are wondering what to do with Early. He is now at his father's home in Tryon, under quarantine, while some disposition of his case is being discussed all over the State.

HELD FOR GRAND JURY.

William B. O'Brien, 825 Twenty-fifth street northwest, has been held for the action of the grand jury by a coroner's jury in connection with the death of Mrs. Hope S. Rathbone, the young white woman who was fatally injured by a truck said to have been operated by O'Brien, while she was crossing Thomas Circle, on August 12. She died September 11.

STRAUSS PUT ON RESERVE BOARD

As recently predicted by The Washington Times, Albert Strauss, of New York, now representative of the Treasury Department on the War Trade Board, was nominated by President Wilson yesterday to succeed Paul M. Warburg as a member of the Federal Reserve Board.

Mr. Strauss, who is fifty-four years of age, has been a banker all his life and has been associated in recent years with various large enterprises. The term of Mr. Warburg expired recently and at his urgent request the President agreed not to reappoint him. Mr. Warburg has one brother high in German financial circles, and another in the service of a neutral European country. He preferred to retire rather than have these facts raised in connection with his confirmation.

GIVES HIMSELF UP

Raymond Clancey, twenty-four years old, who on September 2 escaped from Policeman Albert Herfurth by jumping through a window in the lunchroom at 325 Fourteenth street northwest, walked into District Attorney Lasker's office yesterday, and gave himself up.

This was Clancey's second escape from the officers of the law, he having made his escape before from the prison while being transferred from the courthouse to the District jail last November.

U. S. WILL SET STANDARD WAGES

As one step in stopping the ever upward trend of prices and wages, the Government proposes soon to set a standard wage in each line of war work. At the same time, a more careful checking on prices will be attempted, and in so far as possible, standard or fair price lists will be enforced.

The standardization of wages probably will be undertaken in a few weeks through Presidential proclamation. By this means, a ship riveter in Newark, N. J., will get the same wage as the riveter at San Francisco, and so on through the Government and private war work factories of all kinds.

Heretofore prices have risen, and wages have been boosted to meet them. This process appeared continuous. Now, it is proposed to standardize the wage, and if possible stabilize prices. Price fixing may have to be more widely used. In any event, it is likely that the Government will tell producers that they cannot have raw materials unless they sell their goods at a fair price.

OPERATED ON 15 TIMES.

LONDON, Sept. 20.—British Lance Corporal Ernest Grimes has spent two years of the war in hospitals. He has been operated upon fifteen times as the result of war wounds.
